die blaue blume

STERNDREHER / PRODUCED BY DEUTER

NE 2415 CD $15.98

The symbol of the Blue Flower (Die Blaue Blume) represents the mystical search one often finds in German folk songs. It is a symbol for the longing for the far and beyond. German folk songs tell the tales and stories of all walks of life. And while one finds all themes of life covered in German folk songs, the search for joy and happiness as an attempt to balance the grievances of daily hardships, are the most prevailing in the songs chosen for this album.

was another significant year for New Earth Records. We partnered with automaker Volkswagen for Earth Blue by Deuter as part of an exclusive collaboration that has made all of Deuter's music available through the Autostadt Volkswagen factory in Wolfsburg, Germany. We also released Buddha Garden by renowned guitar and mandolin player Parijat, Lotus Path, a healing journey by James Asher, and Tantra Electronica by well-known ambient musician Al Gromer Khan. Terry Oldfield graced us with Yoga Harmony, which has quickly become a Yoga class favorite, and Hans Christian of the duo Rasa released his solo Renaissance music project, Light & Spirit. Staying committed to our mission of providing music for the home sanctuary, we released the 3-CD boxed set Essence of Well-being, the massage compilation Essential Touch, and the yoga music sampler Inner Balance.

Now in our sixteenth year, we continue to commit to deliver profound music to support all aspects of healthy living. Whether it's relaxation and rejuvenation or celebration and revelry, we offer the music to accompany the setting. The music represented in our catalog is some of the finest visionary music offered and you can consider this catalog an invitation to look (and listen) a little deeper into the music and expand your horizons. Slip into the essential sounds of New Earth Records.

As we grow, our selection of healing, wellness, massage, yoga, reiki, and meditation music continues to grow and evolve. One of our main commitments is to create music that heals and makes one whole...music that reconnects self and other, body and spirit, mind and nature. We choose music on its ability to connect with you, the listener, and its ability to facilitate your journey. It is our mission to instill a sense of peace, balance, and well-being and to take you on a voyage into the heart and soul of music from around the world. Whether it's a path of self-realization, inner reflection, or celebration, we offer something to accompany the journey via a universal medium, the undeniable rhythm of life: music.

Studies have shown that the therapeutic powers of music can reduce stress, enhance immune function, slow down and balance brain waves, reduce muscle tension, and increase endorphin levels: all fundamental components to enjoying higher levels of health and well-being. We provide music focused on our collective need for healing, alignment, and attunement to the deeper spiritual dimension of life. We see music as a gateway to health on multiple levels.

We invite you to ascend to new heights of musical awareness with some of the best, most heartfelt music by creative and talented musicians. We thank you for supporting us in our contribution of sounds that heal and unite.

New Earth Records' 2005 catalog offers another groundbreaking year of releases. We are presenting a series of CD's specifically geared towards Yoga practice. They are Trance Yoga, a high-energy movement CD characterized by up-tempo rhythms; Meditative Yoga, a more Eastern flavored CD designed to bring the body into a natural state of serenity; and Prana Yoga, designed to induce tranquility and physical relaxation. Additionally, Deuter is blessing us with a follow-up release to Nada Himalaya with Tibet: Nada Himalaya 2. Once again Deuter masterfully accesses the purity of the Tibetan singing bowls. Chinmaya Dunster brings us Fragrance of the East, a live concert given in India to benefit environmental causes in India, and Anuvinda and Nik Tyndall have collaborated a third time to deliver Reiki Essence, a CD ideal for Reiki, massage, meditation, or any setting for rejuvenation and relaxation.

Check our website for a series of new Osho releases planned for summer 2005 and also a DVD series with as-yet-unscheduled release dates. Further expected releases in 2005 will feature Terry Oldfield, Rasa, Lisa Lynne, Kamal, and James Asher. Additionally, our music is now available as downloads through E-music, iTunes, Sony Connect, and MSN.
